
The Seven Essentials of Highly Engaged Alumni

Community & Networking:

Staying connected to Marquette, a community larger than oneself, with shared values.

Pride & Spirit:

Having a personal stake in the success of Marquette University, whether it is on the court or in the classroom; feeling "I am Marquette."

Spirituality & Character:

Feeling your Marquette experience is central to a life philosophy centered in Jesuit Christian principles, and committed to doing the right thing.

Service:

Having a keen sense of responsibility to serve others, especially as a way to "pay it forward."

Learning:

Being committed to lifelong learning and professional development as a whole person.

Connecting with Students:

Linking oneself to the future generation of Marquette alumni who will make a difference in the world.

Giving & Creating Legacy:

Making a difference by investing one's time, talent, and treasure toward making the Marquette experience available to others.