

Graduate School of Management Permission to Enroll in GSM Course

Law students pursuing courses in the Graduate School of Management, including graduate accounting, business, economics, entrepreneurship, finance, human resources, information technologies, international business, management, marketing, operations and supply chain, real estate, etc., must have approval from both the Law School and the Graduate School of Management via this form. Law students must provide transcripts from undergraduate studies along with the request form to take a GSM course beyond ACCO 6000, ECON 6000, INTE 6000, MANA 6000, MANA 6001, MANA 6100, MANA 6170 or MARK 6100. The Law School, with the proper authorization will provide a copy of undergraduate transcripts to the GSM office. The link for the transcript request is: <https://law.marquette.edu/assets/current-students/pdf/unoff-undergrad-transcript-other-programs.pdf>

Law students are eligible to take a maximum of 9 credits in the GSM without official admission to the GSM.

- o All prerequisites for GSM courses must be satisfied prior to registration for the course. Transcripts may be required to determine prerequisite completion.
- o Obtain signature as appropriate and forward to the Graduate School of Management.
- o Once approved by the GSM, permission numbers are e-mailed to the student.
- o If the student is unable to register using the permission numbers, forward the e-mail request to Nicole Toerpe Mason (nicole.toerpemason@marquette.edu) of the Law School and request assistance with the registration process.
