

Dr. Deshpande is a senior member of IEEE society, a member of ACM and ISTE. She is a reviewer of IEEE Journal of Biomedical and Health Informatics, Journal of Personalized Medicine (JPM) MDPI, IJERPH-MDPI Journal 2020, Society of Imaging Informatics (SIIM), and NSF CSGrad4US program; Committee member and Artifact evaluator for ACM/IEEE Supercomputing Conference; Proctor for IEEEExtreme programming challenge, and member of the SIIM Machine learning industry liaison sub-committee.

Besides work, Dr. Deshpande likes to travel and explore the history of different places. She is excited to start a new journey in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering at Marquette University and collaborate with other faculty members.

Dr. Deshpande is interested in medical informatics research and would also like to bring interdisciplinary research opportunities to Marquette University. She is passionate about teaching and mentoring students. I am confident that Dr. Deshpande will not only bring new learning and discovery opportunities for our students but will also be able to create new avenues for synergistic collaborations with our faculty. Please join me in welcoming Dr. Deshpande to Marquette University and the Opus College of Engineering.
