FROM THE DIRECTOR ...

The Haggerty Art Associates are a group of young professionals who support the Museum through special projects and events promoting outreach in the community. They represent an important part of the Haggerty Friends. Their very first event in February of 1992 brought over 350 people to enjoy “a live performance with Peter Buffett and Friends” accompanied by the Museum’s first wine tasting. This event was launched under the leadership of Julie Tolan, Rick Kneiser, Ted Jaekels and Monica Haggerty Jaekels, Kate and Dan Meyer and Mary and John Muth. They and their friends established a solid base for a string of successful events over the next nine years. Many of this initial group remain active in the Museum Friends.

Current leadership includes John Eastberg (chair), Sheila Gaspar, Jennifer Miner, Patti Pavlic, Kate Shroeder, and Sheila Taphorn. Their “Coffee and Jazz” project in the Spring of 1999 brought to the Museum a new crowd of parents and children. Their March project this year, “Spring Into Art,” again offered an opportunity for families to participate together in an outing at the Haggerty.

The successes of the Haggerty Art Associates reflect the importance of involving people at all stages of life in the leadership and programs of the Haggerty. Their efforts have increased membership, expanded awareness of the Museum in the community, and funded an exhibition. A tribute is due to their efforts as we move into the new century.
