By submitting your research project to the Dittman Competition, you represent that this is your original work and does not, to the best of your knowledge, infringe upon anyone else's copyright. Copies of all winning entries will be permanently retained in the University Archives. Winners will be invited to make their projects electronically accessible in Marquette's institutional repository, a [http://epublications.marquette.edu/]. Those depositing works in the institutional repository further agree that Marquette University may, without changing the content, convert your project to any medium or format for the purpose of making it electronically accessible in perpetuity.
