

Office of Community Engagement

PROCEDURES: Interested faculty and staff should email a Word document containing the following information:

Faculty information:

Name

Department, Position, title at Marquette

Briefly (150-200 words) describe your background and why you want to explore this particular new research partnership

Community partner information:

Name

partners across the institution, including Innovation and Research, Deans, Department Chairs, faculty members, Center for Teaching and Learning— Service Learning Program, Center for Peacemaking, Offices of Community Service, Student Affairs, Marketing and Communication, and Public Affairs, to ensure engagement efforts are effective and efficient, while meeting the educational and research mission of the university.